Update on the Homewards Project	The report provides information about the Homewards Project, which aims to end Homelessness in the City and seeks endorsement about the Council involvement the programme. The report also provides an update about work underway in the City to respond to the immediate risks.	Suzanne Allen/ Laura Costa	A place where all children belong and all young people can build a successful future. Great neighbourhoods that people are happy to call home. People live in caring, engaged communities that value diversity and support wellbeing	Joint briefing to be held with Housing, AHSC, ECF policy committee members.	A launch event for the programme was widely publicised in media, with collaboration with local community groups, however the programme and its public engagement is led by the Royal Foundation, externally to the council.	This Committee (Decision)
Electrical Testing 2024-2030	Following a tendering process the annual allocation in the current revenue budget allocation is insufficient. The report requests additional HRA revenue budget allocation.	Chris Ellison/ Alison Charlesworth		Briefing with Douglas Johnson Chair of Housing Policy Committee will be completed prior to S&R Committee in September.		This Committee (Decision)

Meeting 6 24/25		16 October 2024
Topic	Description	Lead Officer/s	Council Plan outcomes	Prior member engagement/ development required	Public Participation/ Engagement approach	Final decision-maker (& Type of Item)
Housing Strategy	The Housing Strategy is a corner stone strategy for the Council and will help deliver the key policy drivers of the Council Plan, "People, Prosperity and Planet". The public and partners have been involved in shaping the draft Housing Strategy vision and ambitions and a final draft of the Strategy has now been produced following a two-stage consultation process. It is proposed that Strategy and Resources committee consider the Strategy for approval.	Suzanne Allen/Jack Hewitt/ Ruth Ward	All five outcomes	A draft version of the Strategy was presented to Strategy and Resources committee May 24, for consideration and approval to launch the final phase of consultation.	Two phases of public consultation have taken place in 2024, in February and July. This has included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> An online and paper-based survey. Face to face drop-in sessions. Attendance at existing meeting. Focus groups sessions with communities who are traditionally less well served and those with protected characteristics. Housing is a cross-cutting issue and tends to generate public interest. Press releases relating to the development of the Strategy have been released in conjunction with previous S&R committee meetings, and the consultation. The consultation generated a strong response (approaching 2,000 completed surveys across both rounds of consultation).	This Committee (Decision)
Housing Growth Delivery Plan 2024-2029	A delivery plan for new homes in the city, describing how we will deliver homes in line with the Housing Strategy's ambition for 'More homes and housing choice'. The plan outlines the actions the Council will take to deliver, support and influence housing growth in the city. The plan will include a programme of delivery, action plan and site list providing detail on how sites identified for Housing in the Council's draft Local Plan will be progressed.	Anna Peysner/ Max Ellaby	Great neighbourhoods that people are happy to call home	Attendance at three Strategy and Resources knowledge briefings to update on progress. October 2023, February 2024, April 2024 The Housing Committee will be briefed through a knowledge briefing prior to this Strategy and Resources meeting.	None required – the delivery plan follows the ambitions set in the Housing Strategy and provides detail on how sites identified in the Sheffield Plan (Local Plan) will be delivered. This delivery plan is shaped by the results of the public engagement from these two strategies.	Cross cutting issue: Housing Committee to be briefed prior to S&R decision.

Working Better Together: the Council and the Voluntary, Community Faith and Social Enterprise Sector (VCFSE)	The Council needs to have a collective and shared understanding of the benefits of a strategic relationship with VCSFE. The paper will propose a programme of work to improve our strategic engagement and working with the VCSFE sector in the city. It will clearly signal intent that we want to work differently and will set a framework to start the conversation and work collaboratively with the sector to develop the programme.	Sam Martin/ Emma Dickinson/ Nicola Aldridge/	Sheffield has a thriving VCFSE. Strengthening our relationship and ways of working will contribute to all of the Council Plan outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A place where all children belong and all young people can build a successful future • Great neighbourhoods that people are happy to call home • People live in caring, engaged communities that value diversity and support wellbeing • A creative and prosperous city full of culture, learning, and innovation • A city on the move – growing, connected and sustainable 		Met with VCS Leaders group in Apr24 and due to meet again Sept24	Cross cutting issue: CPL, AHSC and ECF to be briefed
