Adoption of the Gambling Harm Prevention Strategy for Sheffield 2024-2034	Over the past few years there has been increasing recognition of the preventable harms from gambling industry products and practices experienced by individuals, families, communities and society as a whole. Sheffield has been taking steps to address these harms for some time, however this report introduces the city's first Gambling Harm Prevention Strategy. Co-produced by the Sheffield Gambling Harms Stakeholder Group, the strategy sets out a comprehensive plan as to what we will do at a local level to prevent gambling harms in the city.	Greg Fell/ Anna Twelves	People live in caring, engaged communities that value diversity and support wellbeing	Both draft versions, and the final version, of the strategy have been shared with Councillor Argenzio, Chair of Adult Health & Social Care Policy Committee and joint Chair of the Sheffield Health and Wellbeing Board.	The strategy was co-produced by the Sheffield Gambling Harms Stakeholder Group through a series of workshops and meetings. Members of this group include: NHS staff including clinicians; Council staff from Public Health and Licensing; safeguarding leads from the NHS and Council; representatives from the Voluntary, Community and Faith sector and local people with lived experience of gambling harms – both people in recovery and families bereaved by gambling-related suicide.	This Committee (Decision) Cross cutting Issue. CPL, AHSC and ECF Members to be briefed.
Roadmap to a restored, refurbished, sustainable Town Hall	The Town Hall has been the democratic heart of Sheffield for over 125 years and although it has been maintained and remains structurally sound the building is showing its age. Members need costed building design options to understand the way forward for securing the long-term sustainable future of this much-loved civic building.	Tom Smith/ Rebecca Nixon/ Nathan Rogers	Great neighbourhoods / engaged communities / prosperous city full of culture	Cllr Tom Hunt, Cllr Martin Smith and Cllr Ben Miskell have had sight of the proposal via the Regeneration Board. Ahead of S&R committee, a Leaders briefing and Member drop in sessions will take place in November.	The essential stakeholder engagement programme will be a key activity for the next stage.	This Committee (Decision)
