Cabinet Meeting – 20 January 2021

Written Answers Provided To Public Questions

Question of Mr Buxton to Councillor Mark Jones (Cabinet Member for Environment, Streetscene and Climate Change)

- Q. with regard to the civil injunction sought by the Council and granted by Justice Males:
Against how many individuals were committal proceedings sought in court?
Against how many individuals were costs awarded by court in favour of the Council?
Of the above how many individuals have satisfied said costs in full and what is the value of these costs broken down individually?
If there are outstanding costs, what are the individual values of any unpaid costs?
What action is being taken and what is the plan to recoup any costs awarded by court from individuals that haven't yet paid costs awarded by court?
- A. Please see response given to question asked at Council meeting on 6th January 2021
