The Home Secretary reaffirmed the UK's commitment to resettlement post-2020

Page 314

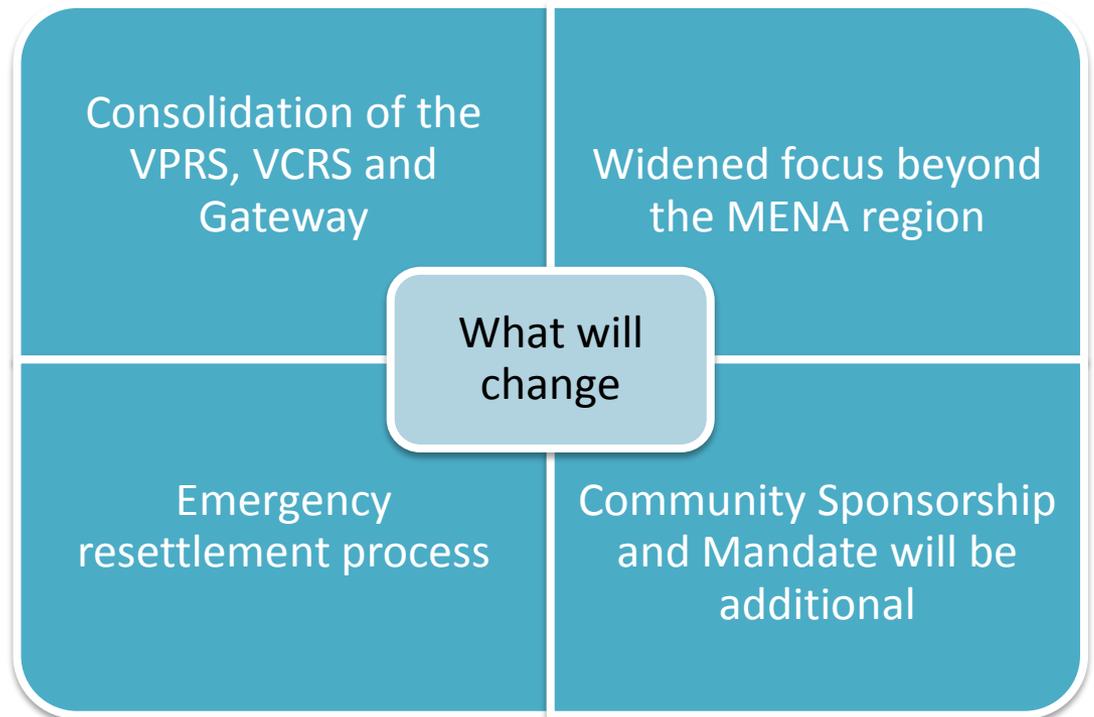

- “Under our new scheme, thousands more people fleeing conflict and persecution will have the opportunity to build a new life in the UK.
- “I’m proud of the world-leading work we have done in the Middle East and Africa so far – but there is so much more to do.”

(Home Secretary, Sajid Javid)

Stay on track to meet existing commitments

Work closely with local authorities on transition to a new global scheme

Infrastructure to enable delivery, working with SMPs

Continued focus on knowledge sharing and best practice through the Knowledge Hub

Community Sponsorship:

Becomes additional under the new scheme

- Since the scheme began in July 2016, 281 refugees have been resettled by community sponsor groups.
 - It has been a success built on dedication, hard work and compassion of community groups and support of local authorities.
- We hope making community sponsorship additional to our global commitment will encourage more groups to support refugee families.
- Local government will continue to play an important role in Community Sponsorship.

Mandate:

Remains additional under the new scheme

Page 320

- The Mandate resettlement scheme resettles recognised refugees who have a close family member in the UK who is willing, and able, to accommodate them.
- Beneficiaries of the Mandate scheme must have been recognised as refugees by UNHCR and assessed by them to be in need of resettlement.
- Mandate will be additional to the main resettlement offer.
- The support arrangements are different under Mandate with the refugee accommodated and supported by a family member.

Summary

- From 2020 the new resettlement scheme will consolidate the Vulnerable Persons Resettlement Scheme, the Vulnerable Children's Resettlement Scheme and the Gateway Protection Programme into one global scheme.

Page 321

- The UK will aim to resettle in the region of 5000 of the world's most vulnerable refugees in the first year of operation of the new scheme.
- The 5 - year £20,520 tariff for each refugee will be retained.
- Refugees resettled by community sponsors will now be in addition to the government's resettlement offer.
- A new process for emergency resettlement will be developed.

What Next for Local Authorities?

- Think about the practical implications of transitioning to the new scheme (What services do we need to procure? When could we start receiving refugees under the new scheme?).
- Consider the numbers you can resettle.
- Pledge!
- Keep talking to us about what you need to support you in a successful transition.
